> THE unsleeping vigilance of the War Office has been turned on the question of officers' medale and decorations. It has been decided that Stars of Orders are never to be wore with patrol jackets, and only with the frock-coat when the cocked hat is also worn.' Also 'ribands of medals and decorations will be worn with undress or mess uniform, sewn on without intervals and without overlapping; two rows being made, it is thoughtfully added, if necessary. Miniature medals or orders are not to be worn in uniform ; but you may wear them in evening dress or plain clothes when in the presence of your Sovereign or her representative. No doubt it is all very wise and right; but will it mean some more jobs for the noble corporation of atmy tailors, and some more little bills for their luckless clients ? . Because, if so, officers will wish the War Office would devote itself to something else : say. to considering whether a cavalry regiment of 600 men-or boys-could not perhaps be supplied with rather more than about 300

THE UNOFFICIAL MEMBERS AND THE ESTIMATES.

Mr Ryrie-Your Excellency, I gave notice of a motion at last meeting, which since that date has been considerably modified, and I think the unofficial members will be perfectly estisfied with it in its present form. The words with full powers to call for papers and information have been omitted, as we are perfeetly satisfied your Excellency will give all possible information. It is now proposed that in addition to the Colonial Secretary, the Colonial Treasurer and Surveyor General should also be members of the Committee. I don't know whether I shall be in order in putting it to-day, but I shall now read the resolution in its modi fied form :- That a special committee, consisting of the unofficial members with the Colonial Secretary, the Colonial Treasurer and the Surveyor General, be appointed to examine into the details of the Estimates for next year, mainly with a view to a full consideration of the salaries question, the public works and the military contribu-
